

Bert Giulian's American Corkscrew Collection for Sale Group 1

Email your wants for availability and total including postage to corkscrew@bullworks.net. Please submit requests with alpha-numeric ID (eg. A001) and your name and address. All corkscrews sold on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Terms:

U.S.A.: Check or Money Order. Orders over $1000 shipped registered mail. Insurance will be added to invoice and you may opt to have the package sent without insurance, assuming responsibility.

Outside U.S.A.: U.S. Dollar Check or U.S. Dollar International Money Order. Wire transfer optional on orders over $1000 (fees to buyer). Optional insurance will be quoted and you may opt to have the package sent without insurance, assuming responsibility. Full purchase price will be used for customs documents.

References to WCC in some descriptions is the inclusion of the corkscrew in the book World-Class Corkscrews.

A027 R. MURPHY BOSTON is the mark at the top of the frame on locking swivel collar corkscrew. Very good condition. Excellent mechanical condition. Wire worm. WCC Page 187. $100

A048 Small twisted wire corkscrew marked CLOUGH'S PATENT (1876).
$85

A058 Corkscrew marked THE HANDY PATENTED FEB 24 2891. Carl Hollweg registered his design for a collapsing corkscrew on November 7, 1901 in Germany (No. 171,941). He had not patented the corkscrew in Germany but it had already been patented in England (1890) and in the U. S. A. and France (1891). WCC Page 269. $85

A060 Corkscrew marked THE HANDY PATENTED FEB 24 2891. Carl Hollweg registered his design for a collapsing corkscrew on November 7, 1901 in Germany (No. 171,941). He had not patented the corkscrew in Germany but it had already been patented in England (1890) and in the U. S. A. and France (1891). WCC Page 269. $75

A063 Plain medicine spoon/corkscrew. WCC Page 215. $85

A064 Plain medicine spoon/corkscrew. WCC Page 215. $80

A067 Combination corkscrew/cap lifter and Baltimore loop seal remover. Silver sheath. Marked PAT. 1906 for John Hasselbring's U. S. Design Patent No. 38,166 for a "Bottle Opener" issued August 14, 1906 WCC Page 279. $125

A071 Murphy direct pull corkcorkscrew with cigar shaped handle. Marked R. MURPHY BOSTON. $45

A073 Murphy direct pull corkscrew with cigar shaped handle. Marked R. MURPHY BOSTON (Boston is faint – a light strike). $30

A074 Murphy direct pull corkscrew with acorn ends on handle.
Marked R. MURPHY BOSTON. $35

A083 This is the original version of Williamson's corkscrew shown in a 1946 catalog as the "Burgundy." $95

A089 Steel Cellarman's corkscrew with wire breaker on the side.
Speed worm. $85

