

Bert Giulian's American Corkscrew Collection for Sale Group 3

Email your wants for availability and total including postage to corkscrew@bullworks.net. Please submit requests with alpha-numeric ID (eg. A001) and your name and address. All corkscrews sold on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Terms:

U.S.A.: Check or Money Order. Orders over $1000 shipped registered mail. Insurance will be added to invoice and you may opt to have the package sent without insurance, assuming responsibility.

Outside U.S.A.: U.S. Dollar Check or U.S. Dollar International Money Order. Wire transfer optional on orders over $1000 (fees to buyer). Optional insurance will be quoted and you may opt to have the package sent without insurance, assuming responsibility. Full purchase price will be used for customs documents.

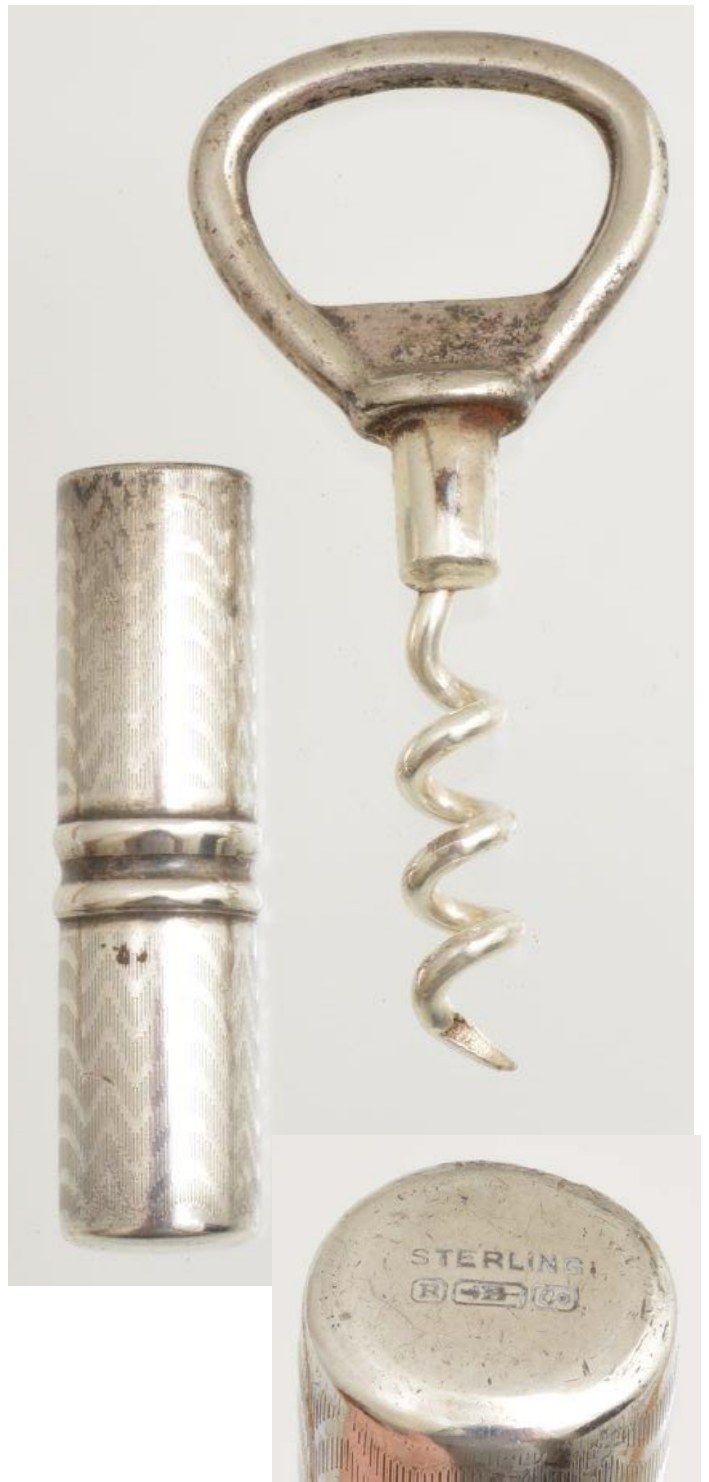

References to WCC in some descriptions is the inclusion of the corkscrew in the book World-Class Corkscrews.

A183 Combination corkscrew and bottle opener marked STERLING on the sheath (cross) 2654. The cross is the mark of J. F. Fradley & Co., New York, 1866-1936. $75

A184 Combination corkscrew and bottle opener marked STERLING (cross) 3004 on the sheath. The cross is the mark of J. F. Fradley & Co., New York, 1866-1936. Engraved W. M.D. which is not Weapons of Mass Destruction. $85

A188 Combination corkscrew and bottle opener marked STERLING with the trademark of R. Blackinton & Co., North Attleboro, Massachusetts, 1862-1967. $65

A189 Combination corkscrew and bottle opener marked STERLING with a poor strike maker's mark. Monogram. Case has a small dent. $45

A190 Combination corkscrew and bottle opener marked STERLING with maker's mark. $55